The following is the text that will appear on the sculpture. Since it takes days to lay out the text, the previous version appears in the images of the text layout on the sculpture in this submission. (See, 230223_These Truths_TextLayout.pdf) The look is basically the same. The text on the sculpture will be revised to what is approved by the ASP.

The four sides of the sculpture are designated by the key words Justice, facing the street, Freedom facing the Courthouse, Equality facing the street, Equity facing the Courthouse. The five parts of each sculpture are the Scroll, Foyer, Lightbox, Back Porch, and Tail. The following texts correspond to each of these areas and are clearly labeled in the images of the pdf.

JUSTICE

Scroll [Foundational Text, Preamble, US Constitution] 238 characters w/spaces

WE THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES, IN ORDER TO FORM A MORE PERFECT UNION, ESTABLISH JUSTICE... AND SECURE THE BLESSINGS OF LIBERTY TO OURSELVES AND OUR POSTERITY, DO ORDAIN AND ESTABLISH THIS CONSTITUTION FOR THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Foyer 152 characters w/spaces

JUSTICE is an oak with many branches and a shelter for all. JUSTICE is a mighty river that denies no one its waters. JUSTICE is what we promised ourselves.

Lightbox "JUSTICE" 483 characters w/spaces

Because These Truths WE HOLD SELF-EVIDENT, thus must Equity in Justice remain.

If OUR COUNTRY 'TIS OF THEE, SWEET LAND OF LIBERTY, then honor seekers of America's dream.

Since rivers outlast nations, since land cares not what name we call it, must not These Truths transcend flags, ideologies, cults, and factions?

Truth shall sing freedom songs; make wrongs right, shine light across dead pastures.

Let the river wash us. Let the river cleanse us. Let the river heal us. With Justice.

Back porch 164 characters w/spaces

Water bird adrift, drowning. Presumed dead,
Crane in the crests spies two beacons ahead. The one of the world tunes itself to the star.
The other truth keeps burning.

Tail 176 characters w/spaces

[Foundational Text, The US Constitution] (Article III), Bill of Rights]

THE JUDICIAL POWER SHALL EXTEND TO ALL CASES, IN LAW AND EQUITY, ARISING UNDER THIS CONSTITUTION,

EQUALITY

Scroll [Foundational Text, Preamble, Declaration of Independence] 272 Characters w/ spaces

Those who care to know will cope and grow together forming a more perfect union in the aftermath of our weathered past - tethered one to another by love and service of country - these self-evident truths, these unalienable rights - LIFE, LIBERTY, AND THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS.

Foyer 140 Characters w/spaces

Our Ancestors demand we stand
Where our roots use to be;
Our unity is fruitful and fierce—
It is a secret garden
Where the tree of life grows.

Lightbox "EQUALITY" 492 Characters w/spaces

We hold These Truths. And we will not let go. That all are equal. Until we all are.

Our legacy is a porcelain cup, brim-filled with atrocities and lovers of liberation.

We the People in order to secure blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity:
first, immigrant, Enslaved, free, incarcerated—All races, All religions. We the People.

In These Truths, we can resurrect the hope we once believed.

Back Porch 154 Characters w/spaces

As sea cows graze at San Juan's knees, and the
Cosmos radiates beyond
Stars, why not us, why not we?
Body to body, we are
Like creatures, rivers, and skies.

Tail 193 Characters w/spaces

[Foundational Text, Declaration of Independence (last paragraph, last sentence)]

AND FOR THE SUPPORT OF THIS DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE,
WITH A FIRM RELIANCE ON THE PROTECTION OF DIVINE PROVIDENCE, WE MUTUALLY PLEDGE TO EACH OTHER OUR LIVES, OUR FORTUNES, AND OUR SACRED HONOR.

EQUITY

Foyer 253 Characters w/spaces

A land not quite yours or mine, still somehow ours. At the root of it, we are all severed pieces, mending into
one. We are hands that till. Hands that sew. Hands that weld; that rock the cradle. What our Ancestors wanted:
We not just live, but live free.

Light Box "EQUITY" [Foundational Text, Preamble, Declaration of Independence] 253
Characters w/spaces

WE HOLD THESE TRUTHS TO BE SELF-EVIDENT,
THAT ALL MEN ARE CREATED EQUAL,
THAT THEY ARE ENDOWED BY THEIR CREATOR
WITH CERTAIN UNALIENABLE RIGHTS,
THAT AMONG THESE ARE, LIFE, LIBERTY, AND THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS

When WORDS and DEEDS meet, there is EQUITY.

Back Porch 116 Characters w/spaces

Like petals on a magnolia
Not one the same as
Another, as another
Yet all are equal together
The fragrance of equity.

FREEDOM

Foyer [Foundational Text, US Constitution, Amendment I,] 276 Characters w/spaces,

CONGRESS SHALL MAKE NO LAW RESPECTING AN ESTABLISHMENT OF RELIGION, OR PROHIBITING THE FREE EXERCISE THEREOF; OR ABRIDGING THE FREEDOM OF SPEECH, OR OF THE PRESS; OR THE RIGHT OF THE PEOPLE TO PEACEABLY ASSEMBLE, AND TO PETITION THE GOVERNMENT FOR A REDRESS OF GRIEVANCES.

Lightbox "FREEDOM" 425 Characters w/spaces

We walk a desert with thirst for freedom, not the trick of the mirage, but for faith of a song and wildflowers on a mesa.

When it comes down to it, what are we waiting for? How will we know when freedom arrives?

Music is freedom. Let singing tell These Truths. Some songs arise from joy. Others ensure survival. Let freedom sing!

The same dusty ground can yield flowers or tumbleweeds. The same land can yield freedom or deny it

Back porch 207 Characters w/spaces,

The caged bird sings to remind herself of being a bird
To remind herself of wings and wind and when she was free
Nobody knows how we will learn to be birds again
But we breathe deep, open our beaks, and fly.
