More information about the artists, their works, and other ongoing Art in Public Places projects can be found at www.culturalcouncil.org

Cecilia Lueza
SKYWAY COLUMN MURALS

Cecilia Lueza is an Argentine-born, American-based, 2-D and 3-D artist.

Lueza studied visual arts at the University of La Plata in Buenos Aires, Argentina.

She is well known for creating vibrant public art pieces in a range of mixed media.

Lueza has completed public art projects in Washington DC, Virginia, Arizona, Florida, New Mexico, Maryland, Tennessee, Missouri, and Argentina.

Andrew Reid
SKYWAY COLUMN MURALS

Andrew Reid received recognition for his work as a graphic artist in his native New Zealand before moving to the United States.

Originally relocating to New York, Reid has lived in Miami since 1991.

Reid's work explores a variety of medias and his clients include state, local art entities, not-for-profit corporations, interior designers, and architects.

Michelle Weinberg
TRAFFIC SIGNAL CABINETS

Michelle Weinberg is a visual artist whose work includes paintings and collages, designed rugs, and mosaic and painted murals.

Her imagery inhabits a "Pretend Dimension," in which elastic perspectives, personalized geometries, and fictitious architectures elaborate stage-set like narratives.

Her works in all media are conceived as vivid backdrops for human activity.

Rafael Consuegra
FIGURATIVE SCULPTURE

Rafael Consuegra is a sculptor and ceramist with over 50 years of experience.

Born in Cuba, Consuegra, seeking exile, left Cuba in 1960 and relocated to Miami, Florida.

He relies on his unique vision, insight, and ability to breathe life into clay and metal.

Consuegra finds inspiration in the mundane, the extraordinary, and the spiritual and his sculptures range in size from small-scale work to monumental art commisions.

Jenny Hager
SCULPTURAL SEATING

Jenny Hager is a sculptor and an Associate Professor of Sculpture at University of North Florida's College of Arts and Sciences, where she has taught for nearly a decade.

Hager's work utilizes a variety of processes and materials, including: steel, cast iron, post-it notes, video, wood, digital photography, and found objects.

As an artist, Hager finds inspiration in dreams, objects from her childhood, gadgets, sea life, and other curiosities.

Lance Vickery
SCULPTURAL BIKE RACKS

Lance Vickery is a sculptor and an Adjunct Professor of Art and Design at University of North Florida's College of Arts and Sciences.
