JUSTICE is an oak with many branches and a shelter for all. JUSTICE is a mighty river that denies no one its waters. JUSTICE is what we promised ourselves.

Because These Truths WE HOLD SELF-EVIDENT, thus must Equity in Justice remain. If OUR COUNTRY 'TIS OF THEE, SWEET LAND OF LIBERTY, then honor seekers of America's dream. Since rivers outlast nations, since land cares not what name we call it, must not These Truths transcend flags, ideologies, cults, and factions? Truth shall sing freedom songs; make wrongs right, shine light across dead pastures. Let the river wash us. Let the river cleanse us. Let the river heal us. With Justice.

We walk a desert with thirst for freedom, not the trick of the mirage, but for faith of a song and wildflowers on a mesa. When it comes down to it, what are we waiting for? How will we know when freedom arrives? Music is freedom. Let singing tell These Truths. Some songs arise from joy. Others ensure survival. Let freedom sing! The same dusty ground can yield flowers or tumbleweeds. The same land can yield freedom or deny it.

The caged bird sings to remind herself of being a bird. To remind herself of wings and wind and when she was free. Nobody knows how we will learn to be birds again. But we breathe deep, open our beaks, and fly.

We shall uphold to MAKE NO LAW RESPECTING AN ESTABLISHMENT OF RELIGION, OR PROHIBITING THE FREE EXERCISE THEREOF; OR ABRIDGING THE FREEDOM OF SPEECH, OR OF THE PRESS; OR THE RIGHT OF THE PEOPLE TO PEACEABLY ASSEMBLE, AND TO PETITION THE GOVERNMENT FOR A REDRESS OF GRIEVANCES.
We hold These Truths. And we will not let go. That all are equal. Until we all are. Our legacy is a porcelain cup, brim-filled with atrocities and lovers of liberation. We the People in order to secure blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity: first, immigrant, Enslaved, free, incarcerated—All races, All religions. We the People. “The most sacred duty of government is to do equal and impartial justice,” Thomas Jefferson. In These Truths, we can resurrect the hope we once believed.

WE HOLD THESE TRUTHS TO BE SELF-EVIDENT, THAT ALL MEN ARE CREATED EQUAL, THAT THEY ARE ENDOWED BY THEIR CREATOR WITH CERTAIN UNALIENABLE RIGHTS, THAT AMONG THESE ARE, LIFE, LIBERTY, AND THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS. When WORDS and DEEDS meet, there is EQUITY.

Like petals on a magnolia
Not one the same as Another, as another
Yet all are equal together
The fragrance of equity.

A land not quite yours or mine, still somehow ours. At the root of it, we are all severed pieces, mending into one. We are hands that till. Hands that sew. Hands that weld; that rock the cradle. What our Ancestors wanted: We not just live, but live free.
