

Kedgar Volta

904-520-1201 | kedgar@castanogroup.com

Summary

Create immersive art, tell cool stories, design memorable moments; for over a decade, Kedgar Volta has been doing all that and more as a vital member of the Jacksonville creative arts and business community. As co-founder and Creative Director of Castaño Group, his multimedia, multi-sensory experiences have connected audiences with insight and emotion in often surprising ways.

Kedgar's media art projects have garnered national, and international acclaim. In 2015, he was named Emerging Artist of the Year by the Cultural Council of Greater Jacksonville, and he's a 2019 Featured Artist for MOCA Jacksonville's Project Atrium. Kedgar's media art has also been featured at Art Basel Miami Beach, the Telfair Museums in Savannah, Georgia, and the Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art. In addition, his work with Castaño Group has been recognized by Communication Arts in its Interactive Annual.

Professional Recognition

- Emmy Award winner
- American Graphic Design Award winner
- National ADDY® winner
- TELLY Award winner
- Communication Arts Interactive Annual
- Communication Arts Typography Annual
- Communication Arts Design Annual, Published 2011
- Print Regional Design Annual
- Felicity International Graphic Competition
- London International Competition ShortList
- Installation work featured at the Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art and Art Basel
- Winner of the Jacksonville Cultural Council's Emerging Artist Award in 2015

Disciplines

- Interactive Light Installations
- Immersive Video Mapping
- Media Architecture
- Motion Graphics
- Realtime Generative Animation

Educational Background & Training

- Superior Institute of Design in Havana, Cuba, Degree in Informational and Graphic Design.